MR. THOMAS BURR

Dedication

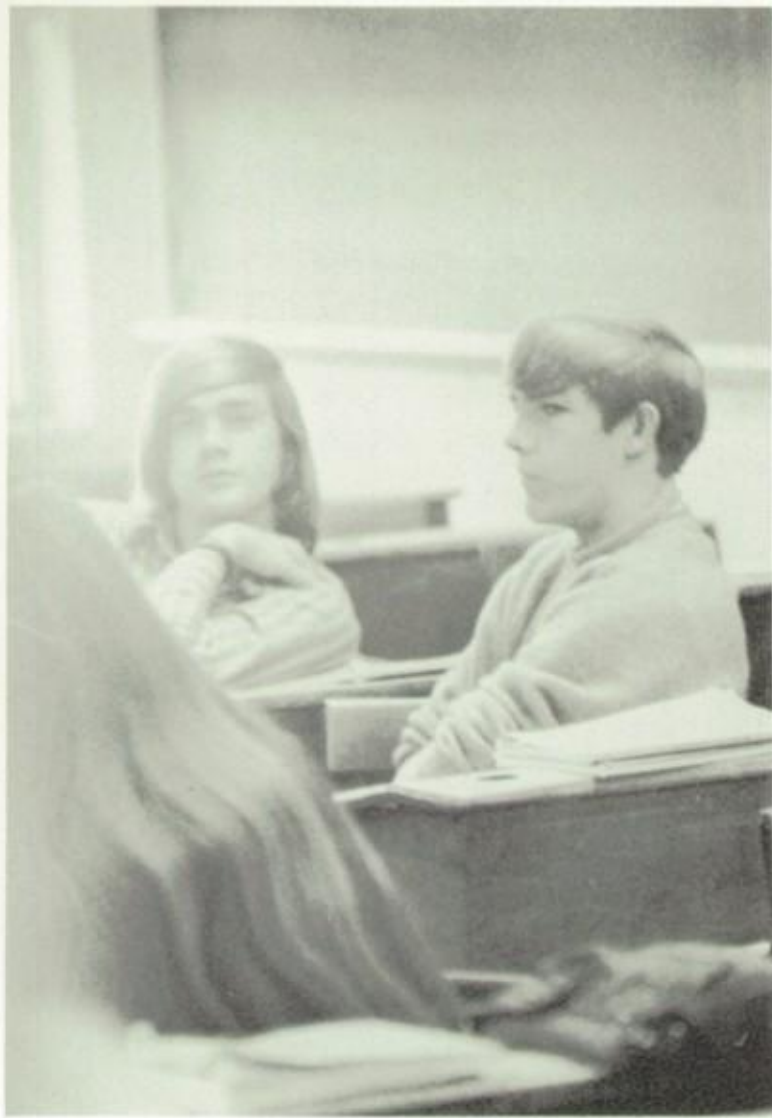

In recognition of his years of service and concern for the students of Ramsey High School, we, the class of 1972 proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Thomas Burr.

A graduate of Montclair State College, Mr. Burr, came to Ramsey High School in 1959. In addition to his 13 years with the science department he has found time to announce and time at wrestling matches, along with advising the F.T.A., HI-Y, and GUY.

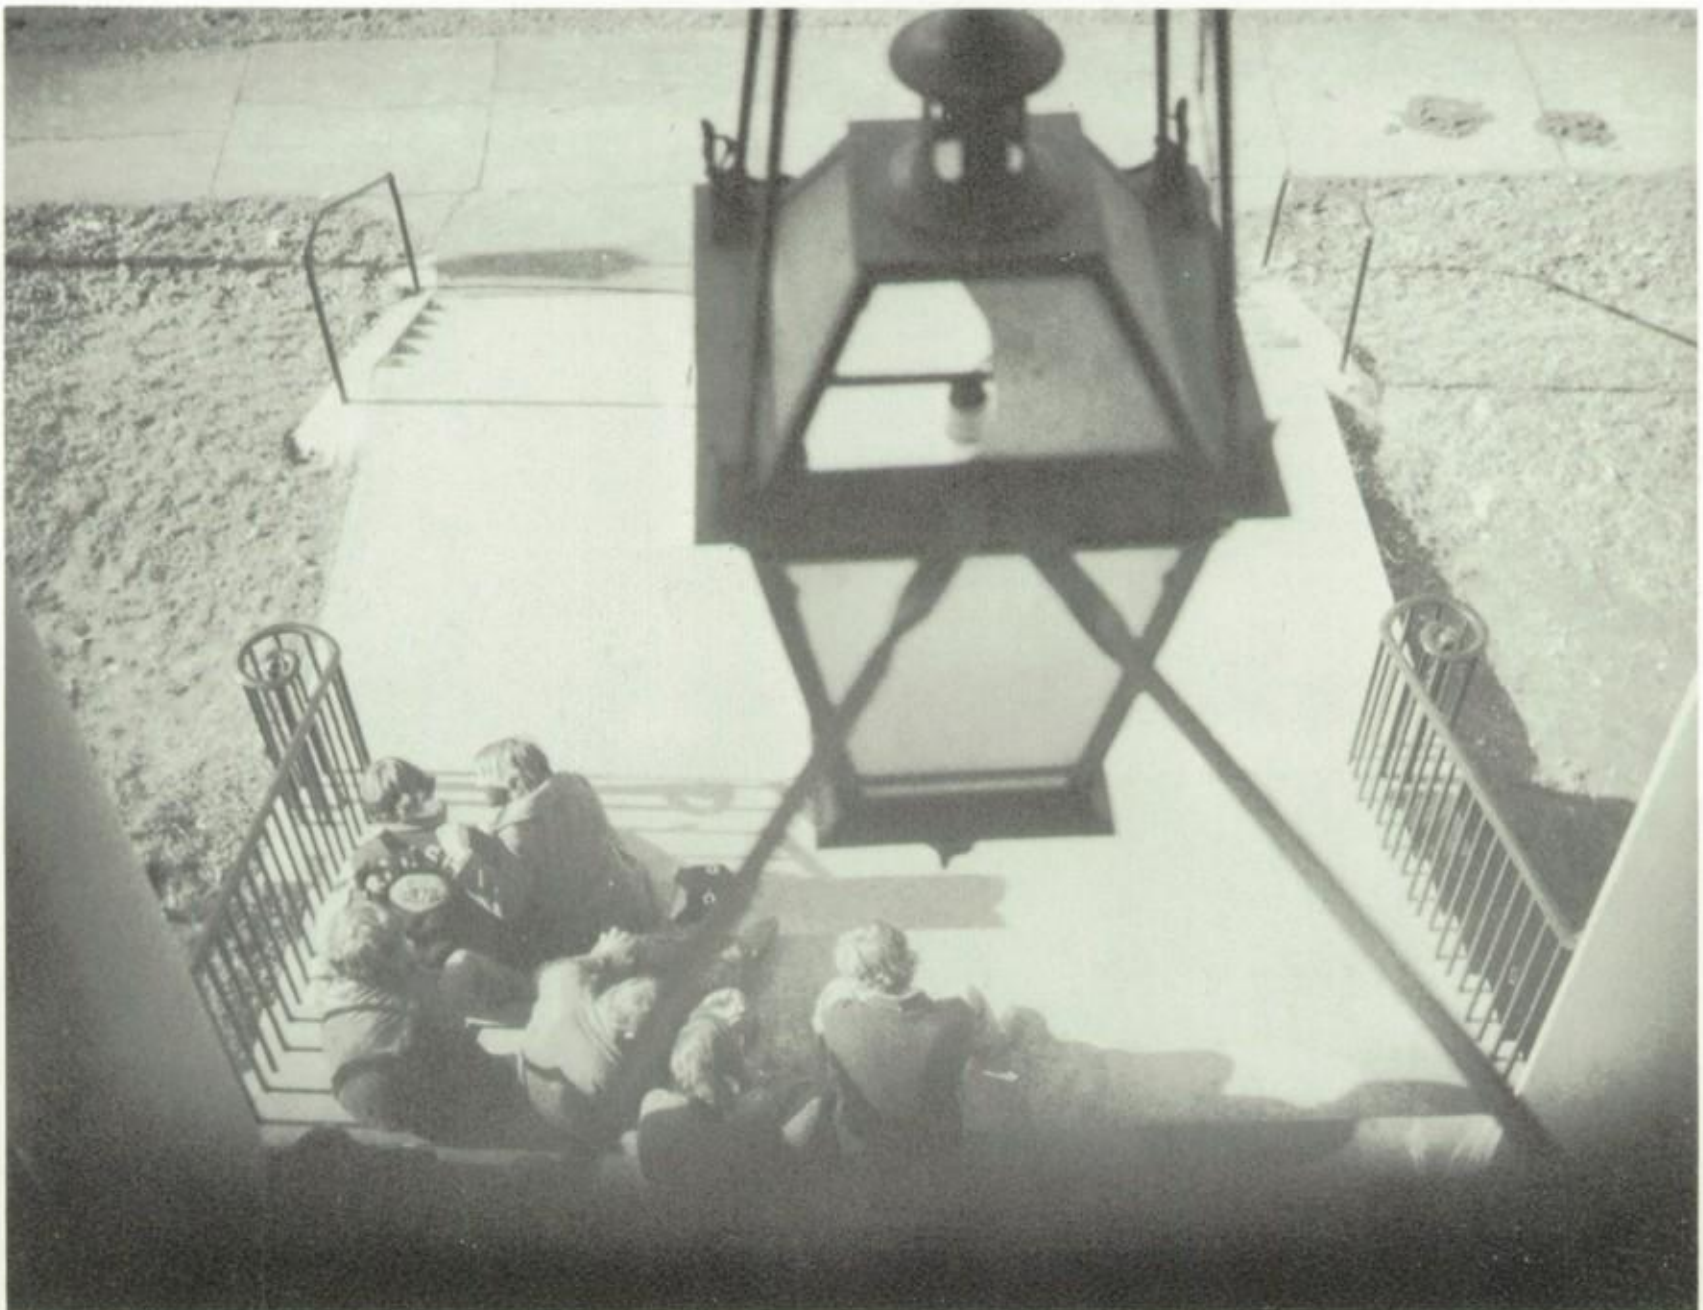

Those who have had him in class will remember his unique sense of humor, but those students will also recall that no teacher had made learning more worthwhile. The others of us will remember his unusual morning announcements and how between classes, with coffee cup in hand, he happily greeted each one he saw.

For these reasons we consider Mr. Burr to be the complete teacher.

*Reflected in the looking glass is an age
When man, impatient of his restrictions,
Is thrilled with the soul's immortal being.*

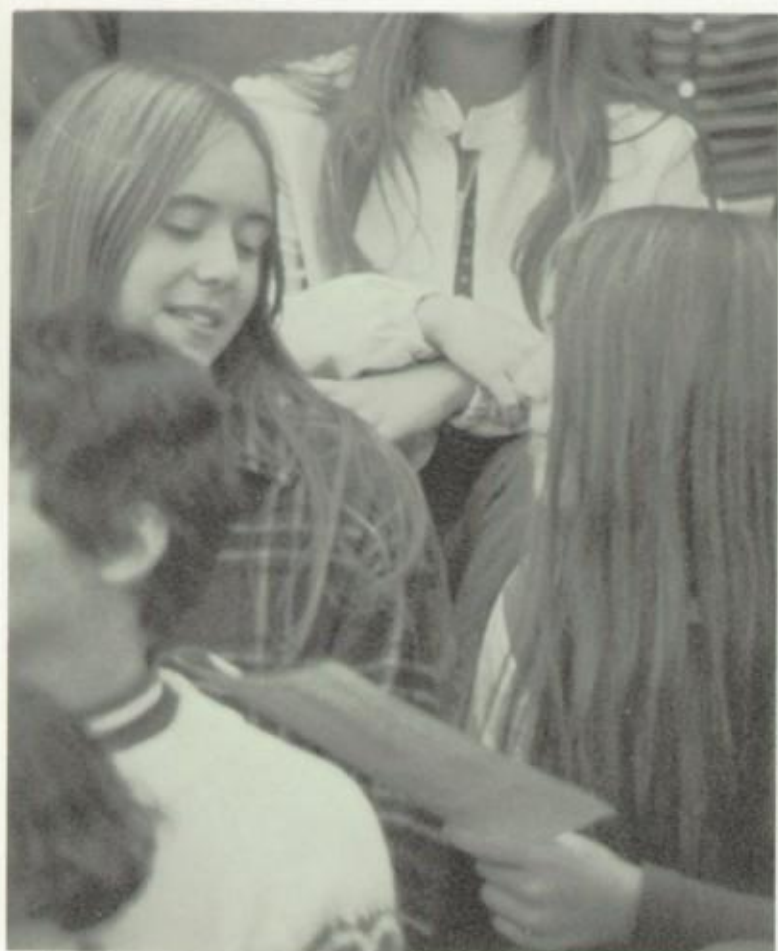

Oh, to be alive in such a time!

The age thundering forth its discontent...

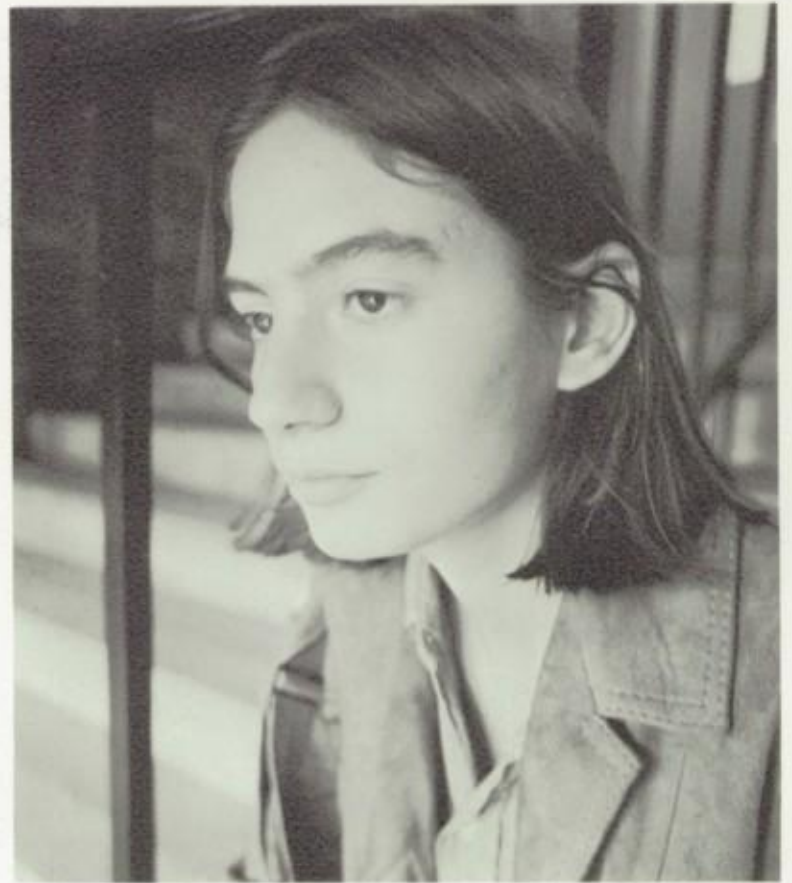

Its people, seeing beneath the world's unrest.

*And through broken traditions,
the flame of truth
is triumphant.*

An age of hardships;

When progress rode her chariot high.

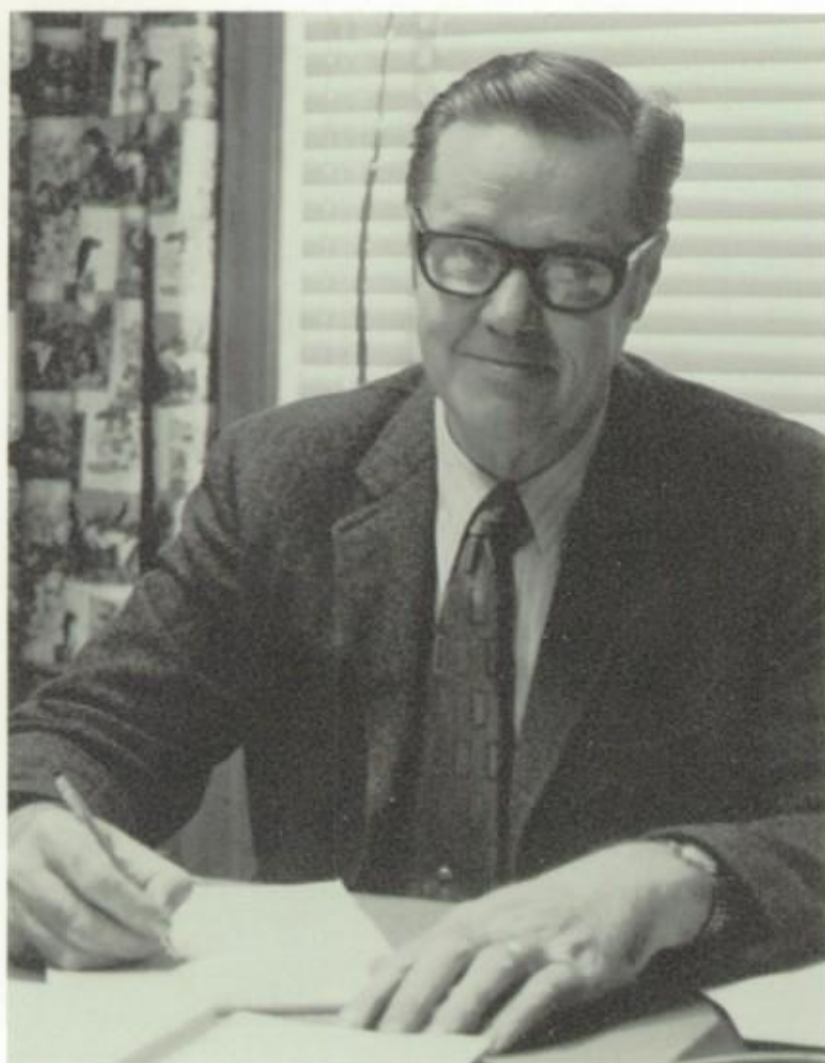

Now, look to the work the time reveals . . .

MISS KAREN KRUSE

After forty years of service to Ramsey High School, Miss Naomi C. Jay retired last year.

A graduate of Elmira College, Miss Jay came to serve as our librarian in 1931. Among her other activities were Assembly Chairman, the Library Council, Stage Crew, and U.S.C. Co-Advisor.

Miss Jay's years of devotion and effort have made our library the outstanding one that it is today. The entire student body wishes Miss Jay continued happiness in the years to come.

*Libraries are not made;
they grow.*

A career of a student, teacher, and administrator in the Ramsey School System drew to a close on January 1, 1972. After serving as the President of Ramsey High School's class of 1929, Mr. Mitchell graduated and went on to study at Muhlenberg. In 1934, he returned to Ramsey as a teacher. Mr. Mitchell taught Math, Social Studies, and later became the head of the Math Department. During this time he also coached the baseball team, and advised both the Junior Class and the Student Council. After serving seven years as Vice-Principal, Mr. Mitchell became Principal when Mr. C. Schanz retired in 1964.

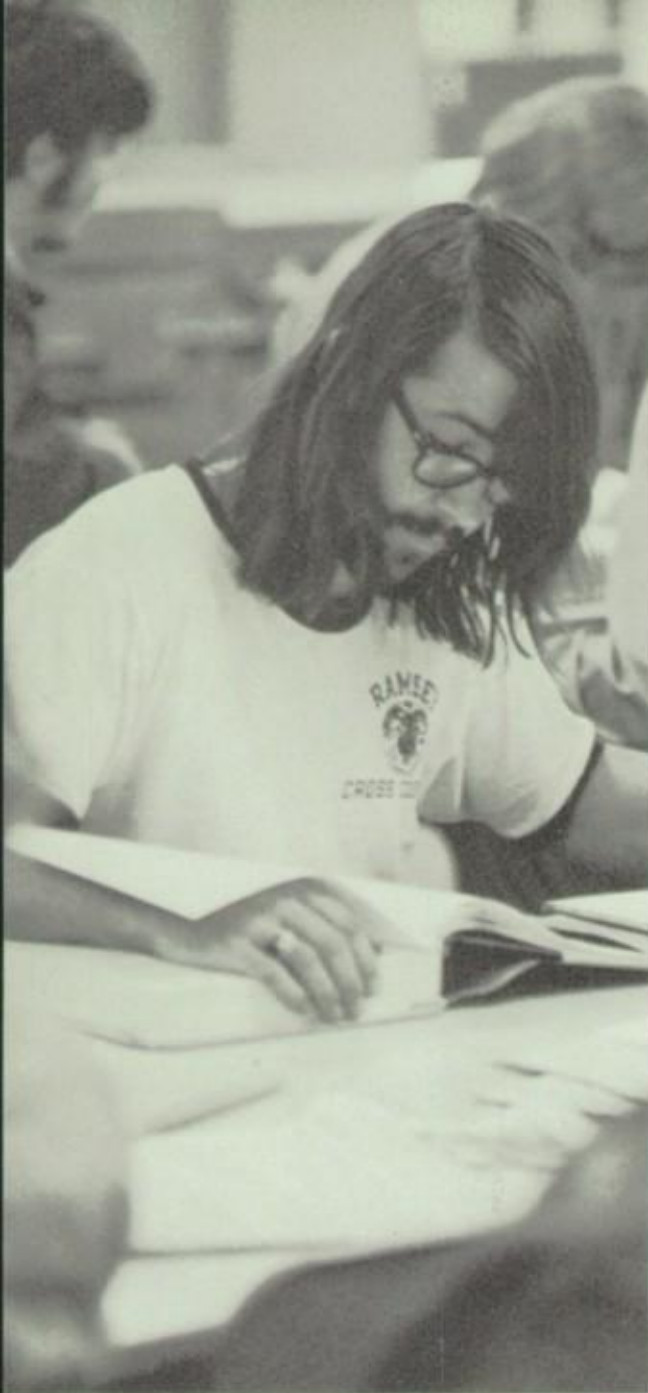

Throughout the time he has spent at Ramsey High School, Mr. Mitchell has proven himself to be a friend both to the students and to the faculty, as well as being a fine administrator. His contributions to the school will never be forgotten by the people in Ramsey High School.

*Education is

Our years at Ramsey High School were saddened by the deaths of three fellow students. We will never forget these members of the class of 1972.

Through the Looking Glass

September of 1968 found 283 freshmen and an air of pride, anticipation, and confusion filling the corridors of Ramsey High School. After ruling Junior High, we were soon lost in the shadows of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

On our first day, freshman orientation, we became acquainted with the first rotating schedule, which proved to be just as much trouble to the entire student body which joined us the next day. We didn't know that in high school everyone counted 8-1-2-4-5-3-6. Early in the fall the school was evaluated by the Middle States Accreditation, who visited classes and spoke with different groups of students. During our first year we participated in the last of the sock, hat, button, and color days, which were designed to encourage school spirit.

Underclassmen but with a year's seniority, some of us began our second year by getting a jump on the rest of the school: in August the band rehearsed in Pennsylvania at the first annual band camp. As a part of a new science curriculum change, interested science students took chemistry a year early, enabling them to take both advanced biology and physics. Slightly daunted by being guinea pigs in this change, those students finally felt at home after being referred to as "darling sophomores" by Mrs. Corizzi. Another change was the addition of a music theory course. During the year we were exposed to mass field trips; but one of the most successful events that year was a Student Council sponsored dance which featured "The Fillet of Soul." During our sophomore year, we were led by our first set of class officers: President Dave Connito; Vice-President Debi Little; Secretary Kathy Stiefbold; and Treasurer Barbara O'Rourke.

Our junior year was filled with the excitement of preparing for the future. For the college bound, there were PSAT's, National Merits, and SAT's, while others began looking for employment for after graduation. Our class officers, Pete Hamill, Betsy Livingood, Gayle Glasgow, and Barbara O'Rourke, began the customary form of money raising, the Christmas card sale. Bids were sold for the combination Prom-Coronation Ball which was held at the Swiss Chalet. Our class play, "The Impossible Years," starred Jim Thebery, Alice Bergen, and Meg Winthrop. At the end of the year, we began to realize that we only had one more year together.

The first change we noticed in our senior year was the addition of a fountain in the courtyard. The work on the courtyard was started by our junior class officers, and was continued with the help of Pete Hamill, Paul Meyer, Gail Glasgow, and Diane Graese, the new senior class officers. A computer was bought, and some students took a six week course teaching them how to operate it. In some freshman English classes, three different teachers rotated during the year.

The year was filled with successes: the Senior Class Plays, on December 11, "Twenty Years From Now," "Lullaby," and "The Hairy Falsetto." In sports we were number one in the league in soccer and cross country. The football team, who had the year before as their first winning season in twenty years, turned in an overall record of 9 — 0 with only 24 points scored against them during the entire season.

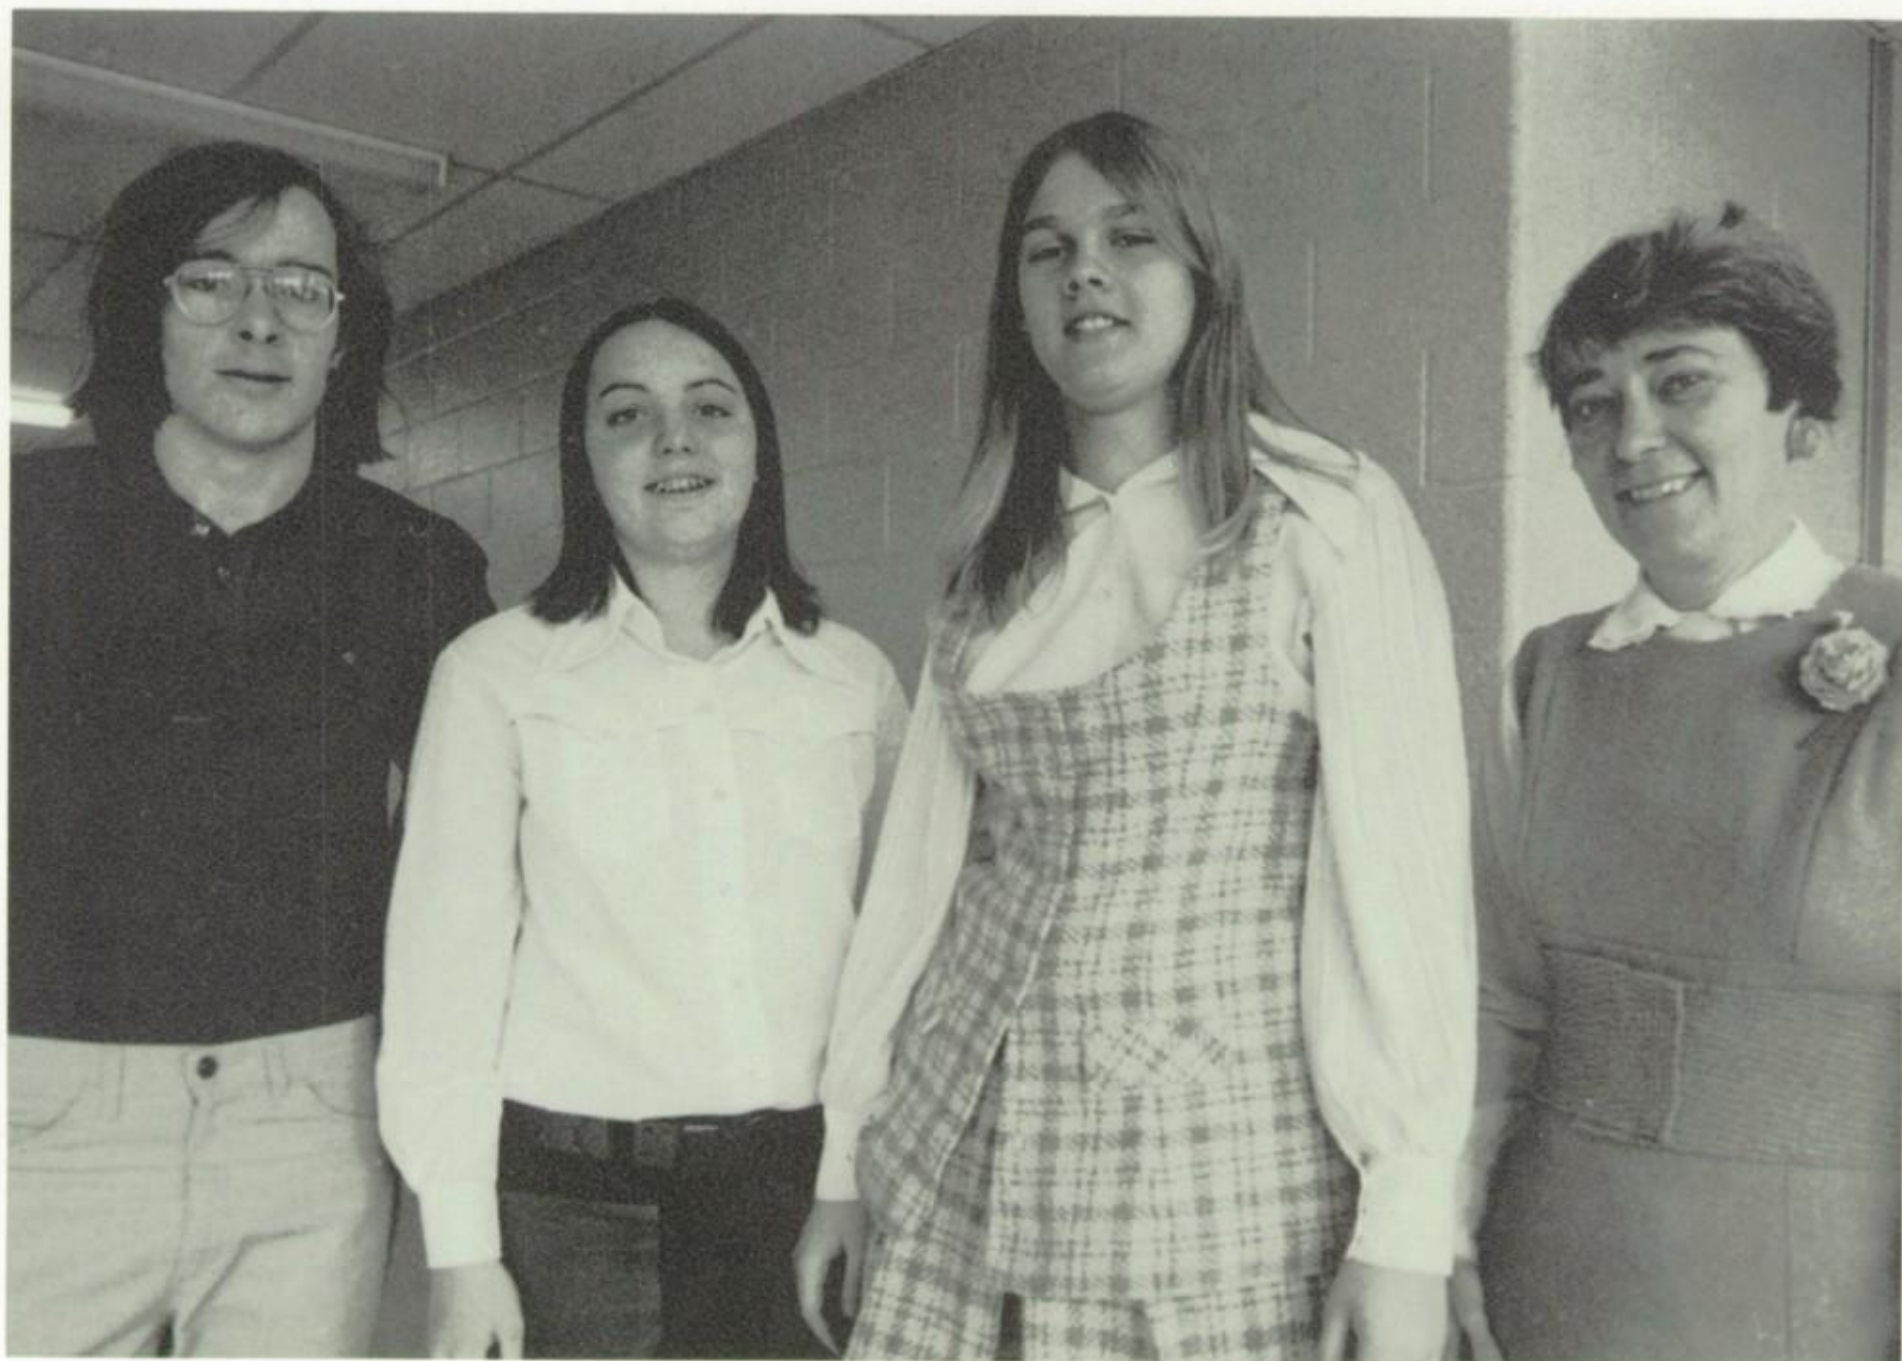

As commencement approached, we saw our lives forming before us with the prospects of further education and employment. We knew that in the future we could look through the looking glass of this book and see reflected in it four of the best years we had ever had.

TWENTY YEARS FROM NOW

Those who attended the senior class plays had quite a variety of entertainment in their evening. Under the direction of Miss Nancy Savoca, three one act plays were presented on December 11. The first play dealt with life, "Twenty Years From Now." Written by J. T. Rodale, the play starred Tom Galda, who portrayed an unscrupulous businessman, who created electrical blackouts to increase the sales of his candles.

The mood of the evening shifted from comedy to drama as "Lullaby," written by Anthony Clark, took the stage. The play concerned a young girl, played by Nancy Nadler, and her relationship with her family and a young man, played by Robb Chapman.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Led by Jim Thebery, the Student Council took on many activities this year. In addition to the traditional Teacher Appreciation Week and student exchanges with nearby schools, the Student Council sponsored a speaker to answer questions on registration and voting. The Student Council planned a farewell assembly for John W. Mitchell, sponsored Seminar Awareness Day, and purchased a sound system for the cafeteria.

1971 VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM 9:0:0

Under the leadership of Coach Ralph Polito, the Ramsey High School football team went through an undefeated season, the first in the history of Ramsey football. Combining a precision offense with a superb defensive unit, the Rams went 9-0, holding five teams scoreless. Along with one of the strongest defensive teams in the county, they also had one of the most productive offensive alignments.

In reaching their 9-0 record, the entire team showed great team play, leading them to a BPSL championship, and the ranking of third in the county. Everyone's "Coach of the Year", Ralph Polito, credits his dedicated staff of Bob Reid, Larry Harding, Sal Scaglione, Terry Robb, and John DePuyt with his success. Mr. DePuyt also led the Frosh team to an 8-0 season.

Not to be outdone by other fall sports, Coach Ed Groh, went out and won his first BPSL championship with the help of the consistent play by his senior members. After a fine performance in the State Tournament, the Rams booted to an 11:4:1 record.

With the senior lineman Roger Schnebel supplying most of the offensive muscle, goalie Jack Bukowski, and defensemen Don Smith, Jim Philip, Pat Connelly, and Paul Meyer, the Rams had one of the top defensive units in the area en route to their BPSL co-championship. The Rams should also be strong next season inasmuch as juniors Bill Bukowski, Dave Yee, and Stan Koznkowski made significant contributions to Coach Groh's championship team this year.

1971 VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY TEAM 15:0

As usual, Coach Lou Molino led his Cross Country team to another great season, in fact this year the team was 15-0 in dual meets. This year's team dominated their meets by placing eight and nine individuals in the first ten finishing positions.

Consistent performances were turned in by all the senior members, especially League Champion Ron Notvest, along with Bill Otis, and Dave Ebersback. However, we cannot overlook the spectacular performances by 1st Team All-County Frank Dengg, who is only a junior. Other juniors who starred for the harriers were Bill Arata and Scottie Handleman. If this weren't enough depth for some people, Coach Molino would point out sophomore Tim Chambers an All-League performer, and the freshman BPSL League Champ, Kevin Sneider, and remind them that they are all returning next year.

Mr. Molino, one of the most dedicated coaches here at Ramsey, was the deserving recipient of the "Bergen Record's" Coach of the Year!

1971-72 VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM 19:5

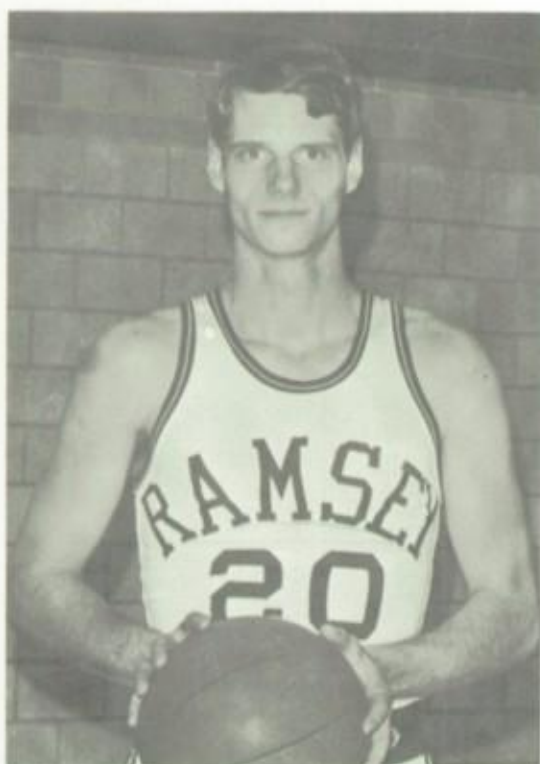

Following in the tradition of Ramsey High School basketball teams, this year's club bounded to an impressive 19-5 record. Veteran coach, Gordon Bedford, was stocked with six very talented seniors who captured both the Christmas Tournament title and the BPSL Jamboree Championship.

This year's team was the most balanced that Ramsey has had in many years. Offensively there were four players averaging in double figures. Cliff Riso and Mark Kramer controlling the boards, Brian Perkins shooting from the outside, Roger Schnebel leading the fast break, and the steady all around play of transfer Scott Smith combined to make one of the best teams in Ramsey's history. Rick McEttrick, the sixth man, played a very important role in the team's success, substituting for players in foul trouble or for those that were injured.

The J.V.'s, under Coach Lou Molino, had an equally impressive record of 17-3, using mostly juniors to achieve their success.

1971-72 VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM 3:9:1

Although this year's wrestlers did not have a winning season, there were several outstanding performances by the young team. Senior Dave Connito proved to be the most consistent by coming in 2nd in the Region in the 141 lb. class. Also, Frank Roes, 115 lb., and Joe Bucci, heavyweight, showed strongly throughout the season by achieving individual winning records.

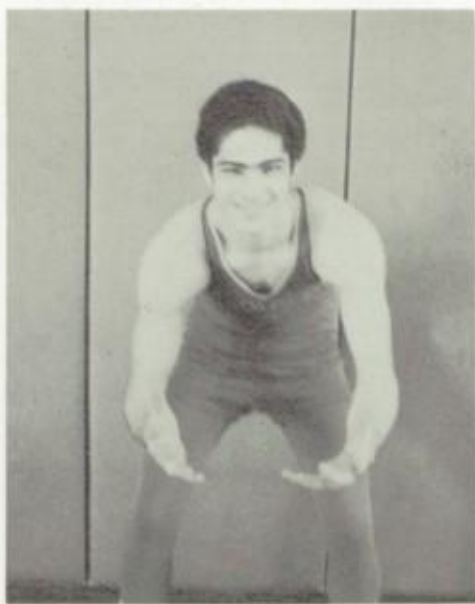

With three starting freshmen on Coach Art Terhune's varsity squad, it is easy to see why he has an optimistic attitude for future wrestling teams here at Ramsey.

A very dedicated group of kids kicked off this new sport here at Ramsey High School. Not only did these swimmers work hard to improve their times throughout the season, but they braved the cold of winter and practiced at six o'clock each morning at the Olympian Swim Club. Coach Terry Robb, also new here at Ramsey, guided our boys to a respectable 3-4 record. Strong performances were shown by senior back-stroker Eric Rubin, senior free-styler Frank Scafuro, and sophomore Mike Haley. The best times were recorded by sophomore Chip Porfido, who excelled in all events, especially the butterfly, which is his strongest stroke.

The girls also had a swim team of their own, which finished with a solid 4-3 record. They were led by junior free-styler Lisa Ahlers and sophomore back-stroker Barbara Perkins. Other consistent performers were Ginny Alberts, Sheryl Balder, Mindy Donahue, and Sue Bianchetti. These girls were organized by Coach Robb's assistant Mrs. Carol Rebain.

With 11 lettermen returning, it is no wonder that Coach John Ponchak is optimistic about this season's outcome. The pitching staff is bolstered by four experienced senior starters, Pat Connelly, Paul Nowell, Mark Kramer, and Dean Varley all having excellent control. The Ramsey "9" also has an all senior infield with Jack Bukowski at first base, Dan Donahue at second, Jim Rapp at shortstop, and Roger Schnebel at third. These four players, including Paul Clifford, catcher, are very consistent both at the plate and in the field. The outfield will probably be bolstered by seniors Bill Zaccheo, Tim Welch, and Rick Kloepper, with utility man Jim Philip.

With constant backing by the junior players and strong performances by the seniors, Coach Ponchak could easily pocket a BPSL title and go a long way in the post-season tournaments.

1972 TRACK AND FIELD TEAM

This could be the year for Coach Fred Ufferfilges' trackmen to shine. They have excellent performers in each event, whether it be in track or field.

Coach "U" will depend upon top-grade performances from seniors Don Smith, who holds the mile record here at Ramsey; Ron Notvest, an excellent Cross-Country runner; and juniors Frank Dengg and Bill Arata, both in the distance races. Coach Ufferfilge also has depth in the sprints with superior performers Jim Chambers and Lou Swan.

In the field events, Ramsey has the top discus thrower in the BPSL, junior Erik Fallenius. Then there is Tim Pendry who can broad jump over twenty feet. For those who need more proof, Coach Ufferfilge has it in senior Cliff Riso, Group II State Champion in the high jump, who has cleared 6'5". It is evident that they are the pick of the BPSL.

1972 TENNIS TEAM

We're expecting good things to happen this year with Coach Bruce Stead and his men in the yellow sweatsuits. This year the season will no doubt be a promising one with seniors Paul Meyer and Rick Bjornberg, and junior-Captain Scott Tobey to lead the way. With a fine group of hard working underclassmen out to surpass their previous records, they will keep the name and reputation for the team and of Ramsey High School.

1972 GOLF TEAM

At Ramsey High, golf has always been a good sport. This year Coach Robertson is taking his teams to the greens for another successful season. On hand to swing off into this '72 season will be a great team of scoring seniors; senior-Captain Bill Otis, along with Joe Palmer, Eric Ludwig, and Jim Campbell. They should be able to put it all together to make the season a success. They will strive to complete '72 as the year of the Ram.

MURRAY NUTS

NEW JERSEY STATE CHAMPIONS, 1972

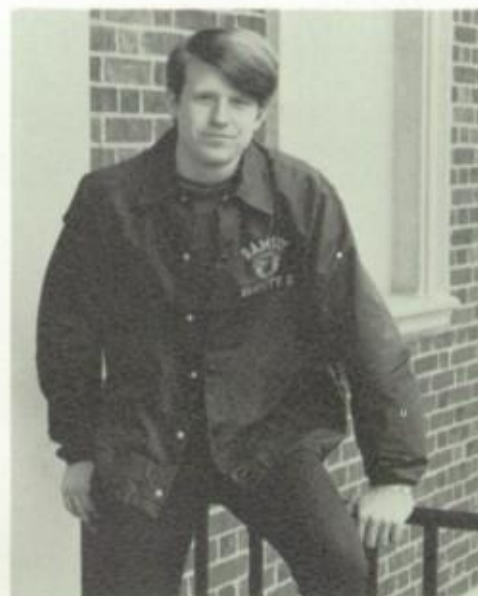

It seems as if every sport that Mr. Richard Murray coaches wins championships, and his Murray Nuts are no exception. Coach Murray's physical fitness squad has six returning lettermen, including senior-Captain Kevin Troy. Mr. Murray believes his boys are "going to be tuff" at this year's meet. Mr. Murray, who always goes into a contest expecting to win, has good reason to believe this year, because of such talented seniors as Dave Ebersbach, Frank Scafuro, and Frank Roes.

1972 BOWLING TEAM

This year, the Bowling Team at Ramsey completed its fourth year of league competition. Starting with practices in early December, Coach Unterstein brought off another great year with his team. Senior-Captain Pat Connelly, placing second in the BPSL league scoring, and Elmer Sotomayor, lead the way along with a good promising group of underclass talent that helped to make the season a success. The years to come should prove successful.

NUGGET STAFF

Starting the year with great enthusiasm, the Nugget Staff planned a very organized system of production, only to realize that things would never be that perfect. We had ideas and ambitions and a list of traditions to follow.

Although there were many setbacks, we tried to make a yearbook that would be the best, for the class that is the best!

We've spent most of our senior year in the Yearbook Room. Almost every study period and many afternoons have been spent working, struggling, and sometimes sleeping.

We've produced a book that we are proud of, and pray that the Class of '72 lets us continue our lives.
